3 January 1986

1. New DDA

On 31 December, Harry E. Fitzwater, DDA, retired and was replaced by Dick Kerr, the former Associate DDI, effective 2 January 1986. The Director of Security (D/S) and other DDA Office Directors met in a combined session with the new DDA and the D/S met with him privately in a one-half hour session.

2. OS Reorganization

[redacted] announced that the plans for a reorganization of the Office of Security are still in the works. The working groups' plans are being consolidated and a status report is expected to be forthcoming within the next week. As noted earlier, there will be two Deputy Directors of Security, one for personnel security and one for physical and technical security. Under each Deputy Director there will be a number of group chiefs at the SIS level with division chiefs aligned under them.

3. Polygraph Program

During the week, the D/S and the DD/S met with the DCI to discuss recent statements to the media regarding the polygraph. Based on their comments, the DCI submitted a statement to President Reagan on the value of polygraphs. In his statement, the DCI pointed out that he believed "... all those with access must do what they can do to protect our secrets and to cooperate in identifying those who do not."

8. Technical Security Update

During the period 8-10 January, the Technical Security Division will hold its annual conference. All Chiefs of the Technical Security Units at the regional bases will be in town for the conference at which they will learn about plans for the directorate.

DD/TS has agreed to OTE's request for an SIS level seminar on Technical Security. The attendees will be briefed on important events in the area of technical security and problems for the future.

On 9 January the DD/TS will meet with senior managers at NSA. NSA is considering organization changes in the technical security area and the DD/TS will compare notes on changes.
